

WILLIAM STEVENS - 19.

A. No.

Q. But that remark referred to whatever remark you did make referring to the disappearance of your brother-in-law?

A. Knowing that he had not been home.

Q. And this was on Friday?

A. Yes, I know it was it was before I got this paper I spoke of.

Q. Who were you talking to?

A. Chief Harry Francis. Second Assistant George Vanderveer.

I don't remember who was in the other fire house at the time.

Q. You had no idea then that your brother-in-law met his death?

A. No. Not until I was told at the house. I had a feeling always that he would come back. I don't know what bouyed me up. But I had the feeling that we would sometime see him. I meant when I say that, that something official being brought up. I am trying to give you a plain and straightforward answer as I can.

Q. The report was, as I understood it, that you said to these gentlemen, there is something going to happen?

A. I never remember saying that.

Q. Well to them or some one?

A. I don't remember saying that.

Q. You might have said that?

A. I might have. Yes.

Q. Well, if you had said you will hear something soon, what did you mean they would hear?

A. I have no idea. Maybe my mind was so worked up I did not know what I was saying.

Q. You did not know the Doctor was dead then and had hoped he was coming back?

A. Yes.
